

HOW ARE THE PHILIPPINES' CHILDREN?

The Philippines has ratified (pledged to follow) the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. This means that the Philippines must respect the rights of the child and listen to what children have to say. Are the rights of the child respected in the Philippines? You and other children there are the experts.

40 MILLION CHILDREN

98 million people live in the Philippines. Almost 40 million are children, and 11.3 million of the children are under five years old.

NAME AND NATIONALITY

From the day you are born you have the right to have a name and to be registered as a citizen in your country. 2.4 million children are born every year in the Philippines. 1 out of 10 of them are never registered. There is no documented proof that they exist!

SURVIVE AND GROW

You have the right to life. Philippines must do all it can to allow children to survive and develop. 1 out of 32 children in the Philippines (71,000 every year) dies before the age of 5, usually due to causes that could have been prevented.

HEALTH

You have the right to food, clean water, medical care and to privacy when consulting an adult about any health problem. 9 out of 10 children in the Philippines have water from improved water sources, and 7 out of 10 have access to adequate sanitation facilities.

A HOME, CLOTHING, FOOD AND SECURITY

You have the right to a home, food and security. Almost 1 out of 5 children in the Philippines live in extreme poverty, on less than 1.25 US-dollar (58 Philippine Pesos) a day.

EDUCATION

You have the right to go to school. Primary and secondary schools should be free for everyone. Almost 9 out of 10 children in the Philippines go to school.

PROTECTION AGAINST VIOLENCE

You have the right to protection against all forms of violence, including neglect, maltreatment and abuse. Only 48 countries have forbidden all forms of corporal punishment for children. Philippines has not. Many schools still allow caning.

HAZARDOUS CHILD LABOUR

You have the right to be protected against both economic exploitation and work that is hazardous to your health or which prevents you from going to school. All work is prohibited for children under 12. Some children are forced into the worst forms of child labour, such as being debt slaves, child soldiers or used for commercial sexual exploitation. An estimated 2.4 million children aged 5-14 in the Philippines have to work.

YOUR VOICE MUST BE HEARD

You have the right to say what you think about any issue that affects you. The adults should listen to the child's opinion before they make decisions, which must always be made in the best interest of the child!
